PRIVACY POLICY/GDPR General Data Protection Regulation May 25, 2018

The information you provide to us is maintained strictly so we can effectively do business together. It's implied consent to have this data for these purposes when you send the information to us.

It's all considered personal information and, as such, we don't use any of it for anything other than our doing business with you as your photographers.

Your personal information is not shared with anyone outside of our company at any time for any reason.

Data is available only to persons with a need for it.

Your personal data will be securely maintained for up to 20 years. Paper copies and hard drives are stored at a discrete locked location that is protected by a monitored alarm system. Cloud-based storage locations are in and of themselves GDPR-compliant.
